The London Press on the Death of Thad. Stevens.

London Aug. 14. The death of Representative Stevens has created a sensation, and nearly all the morning journals have elaborate obituary notices.

The Times, after recounting Stevens' prom-The Times, after recounting Stevens' prominent connection with the recent impeachment project, and his views relative to the payment of the U.S. 5.20 bonds, concludes its article with the following words: The death of Thaddens Stevens is not now a public loss. His impeachment policy was of incalculable injury to his political party, and the financial dishonesty which he encouraged dies with him. He was a fanatical, bitter and self-willed man, but not mean or deceitful. He is the last of the leading Americans who had the courage to rise above political partizanship.

The Morning Telegraph has the following: Stevens was neither good, wise nor generous, but in his time did signal service; and with all his faults, he merits the famous phrase, all his faults, he merits the famous phrase, That was a man.

The Daily News concludes its article thus:
"The death of Sevens leaves no important place unfilled either in the lead of his party or in the councils of the nation." The other journals also have articles expressing their views on the same subject.

Express Robbers Arrested TORONTO, Aug. 14.—The police of this city and some American detectives visited the Turf Clab Hotel and Brockton Club House last night and arrested the proprietors and several others for complicity in the Adams Express robberies, which took place in the United States. Arrests were made to the number of ten or twelve parties, who are well-known gam-
